Slide Connector

Get your PowerPoint® madness under control.

With the Slide Connector, you can manage, edit and create your PowerPoint® presentations directly in censhare for consistent communication.

Using the integrated wizard, presentations can be easily split by slide or section during import for centralized management.

And there's more: a new output channel allows you to export desired slides fully automatically into native PowerPoint® presentations.

Organize your PowerPoint® presentations centrally in censhare today. We will be happy to advise you!

Benefits

- Use the censhare content editor to display your structured content directly within a slide.
- You can also add content from related assets, such as product, personal, or project information.
- Use existing censhare image sections or localizations through censhare language management.
- Simply merge any slides by relation and create entirely new slide sets as PowerPoint® files at the touch of a button.
